

Nova Motor Complete - General Conditions

Motor coverage rules - synthetic demo document

1. Scope

These General Conditions apply to Nova Motor Complete policies when referenced by the Particular Conditions.

2. Collision damage

Collision damage covers accidental physical damage to the insured vehicle, subject to the deductible and exclusions.

3. Theft of vehicle

Theft of the insured vehicle is covered when reasonable security precautions were taken and the event was reported to the police without undue delay.

4. Glass breakage

Glass breakage covers accidental fracture of the windscreen, side windows and rear window.

5. Personal belongings

Personal belongings temporarily kept in the locked vehicle may be covered up to the limit shown in the Particular Conditions, subject to section 6.3.

6. Exclusions

6.1 General exclusions

- Intentional damage by an insured person.
- Use in a speed competition.
- Loss arising while the vehicle is used for unauthorised commercial passenger transport.

6.3 Theft from an unattended vehicle

For personal belongings stolen from an unattended vehicle, cover applies only when the vehicle was fully locked and the belongings were concealed in a closed luggage compartment or otherwise not visible from outside.

A portable computer left visible on a passenger seat is not covered, even if the vehicle itself was locked.

See section 5 for the monetary limit applicable to eligible personal belongings.

7. Claims

The insured should provide police reports for theft claims and photographs or repair estimates when reasonably available.
