

Nova Home Secure - General Conditions

Home coverage rules - synthetic demo document

1. Definitions

Water damage. Accidental escape of water from fixed domestic installations, pipes, tanks or connected appliances. Flood and groundwater are not water damage under this definition.

Reasonable maintenance. Maintenance that a prudent owner or occupier would ordinarily undertake to prevent foreseeable deterioration.

2. Building and contents

Building and contents are insured up to the limits shown in the Particular Conditions, subject to the exclusions and deductibles.

7. Escape of water

Sudden and accidental escape of water from a covered installation is insured. Costs of locating the source are included up to EUR 5,000 per event when reasonably necessary.

8. Maintenance, negligence and repeated leakage

Damage is not automatically excluded merely because the insured was negligent. However, where the insured knew of a recurring leak and failed to take reasonable steps to stop it, damage attributable to the continued leakage after that knowledge is excluded.

For ordinary accidental water damage where no such repeated-leak exclusion applies, the deductible is the amount shown in the Particular Conditions or a later endorsement.

9. Theft

Theft following forcible and violent entry is covered up to the limit in the Particular Conditions. Cash is subject to a separate EUR 1,500 sublimit.

10. Temporary accommodation

Reasonable temporary accommodation is covered when the insured home is uninhabitable following an insured event.

Synthetic document created solely for the PolicyLens RAG prototype. It does not describe a real person, policy, product or insurer.